«FROM THE PEN TO THE MICROPHONE»

Last January, pupils from Notre-Dame de la Salette participated in the project “From the pen to the microphone” ....

By Marine GIBOUDOT and Margaux TOINARD

This project consists in writing a song and sharing their idea of words with their friends. Last January, two songs were written by some pupils of the 8th form.

The titles are “L’attention” and “Maître de tout, maître de rien”.

The pupils had about 6 meetings with Cédric DE LA CHAPELLE to gather their several ideas, to write their songs, to record them and then to repeat. Their song was sung on January at “The Moulin de Brenans” in front of their families and friends.

“ L’ATTENTION ”

This song is written and composed in reaction to the Paris attacks. The pupils have longed to express their opinion through this song. Lots of emotions were appeared during their performance.

Some families have been touched by these words. A clip has been produced later.

“ MAITRE DE TOUT, MAITRE DE RIEN ”

This song has been written to speak about the notion times (but to speak of the awareness teenagers concerning stakes of their generation too).

During their performance, the pupils danced and shared their joy of singing their project. A clip has been produced too.

These performances stay unforgettable for the pupils, their families and their friends too.
